

Q 10:

A. gitignore file tells Git which files and folders should not be tracked or uploaded to the GitHub repository. It is used to exclude temporary files, compiled files, IDE settings, and operating system files.

```
Compiled output files
*.hex
*.elf

Build folder build/

VS Code settings
.vscode/

macOS files
.DS_Store

Windows files
Thumbs.db
```